

How the Enemy is Training Mankind to Hate All Jews

by Jeremy James

In our last paper (#428) we described the three main types of Zionism. In it we identified Secular Zionism – the type espoused today by the ruling elite in Israel – as a very dangerous movement on the world stage.

We will now examine the driving force behind it. Its leaders plan to create a ‘Greater Israel’ by substantially expanding the territory of Eretz Israel and absorbing large segments of the sovereign territory of the Arab countries around it. They justify this alarming ambition by citing verses from Scripture where the LORD promised to give the descendants of Abraham, through Jacob, sovereign ownership of a contiguous region stretching from the Euphrates to the Sinai peninsula and from an area north of Damascus to the northern part of Arabia.

Did the LORD make such a promise? Yes, He did. See, for example, Genesis 15:18-21 and Deuteronomy 1:7 and 11:24.

Clarence Larkin, an evangelical Christian, illustrated where the borders of this ‘Greater Israel’ were likely to be on a map prepared by him in 1919 – see the chart at the top of this page.

While Larkin was trying to give a strict representation of 'Greater Israel' solely by reference to information given in the Bible, critics of this plan, notably Arabs in the surrounding region, believe the expropriated territory will be even larger. Maps like the one below are often cited by them to illustrate how much Arab-owned land they believe the Israeli leaders intend to annex and absorb:

When the LORD first revealed His plan for a greater Israel, He did not specify when it would be fulfilled. It was only in later books of the Bible, after the Pentateuch, that we learn that this will occur only when His Son, Jesus Christ, returns to rule the world from his throne in Jerusalem.

We are not concerned in this paper with the size of the territory in question. Since the borders will be settled by Jesus Christ upon his return, we can be satisfied that the outcome will be fair and equitable, and acceptable to all concerned.

At this point we must ask how Satan intends to circumvent this plan.

Position taken by Christian Zionism

Christian Zionists approve of the plan since it is supported by Scripture. However, for some strange reason, it hardly occurs to them that Satan will try to hijack the plan and use it for his own purpose. They believe it could be carried through before Jesus Christ returns to earth and, if so, the strategy needed to do this must, accordingly, be holy, righteous and acceptable to God.

By taking this stance, the Christian Zionists are making two very serious errors: (1) They are failing to study carefully what Scripture actually says about the creation in due course of 'Greater Israel' and (2) They are adopting the Jesuit maxim which claims that "the end justifies the means". Where (1) is concerned, the Bible clearly tells us that Jesus Christ will determine the actual borders of greater Israel upon his return, while (2) is a gross violation of the commandments given to us by Jesus:

"And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these."

(Mark 12:29-31)

A sad encounter

Today (3 July) I had a sad encounter with a fellow born-again Christian. My heart fell when I heard her defend the ongoing slaughter of the residents of Gaza by Israeli forces. The newspapers had just reported that the death toll to date was 57,000. This figure included thousands of women and children. She took exception to my use of the word genocide and argued that Israel had every right to defend herself. Hamas had attacked on 7 October 2023 and killed or kidnapped hundreds of Israeli civilians. The people of Gaza "should not be there"; Netanyahu, she said, was "God's man" and carrying out God's will.

AP photo of mourners in Gaza, 3 July 2025

I have known this woman for 14 years and observed her humanity and her many fine qualities. It was painful to see how the Christian Zionist mindset had taken hold of her. I had only ever known her as a kind and compassionate person. And yet, here she was, defending the slaughter of tens of thousands of innocent civilians, including mothers with infants, little children, teenage boys and girls, and the elderly.

The Enemy is using 'Christian Zionism' to blind a great many Christians to the strategy that the ruling regime in Israel is using to accomplish its military goals. They are unable to accept that the Arabs of Gaza are human beings, just like themselves. They are the neighbors that Jesus spoke about. Somehow Christian Zionism has turned our neighbors into something else.

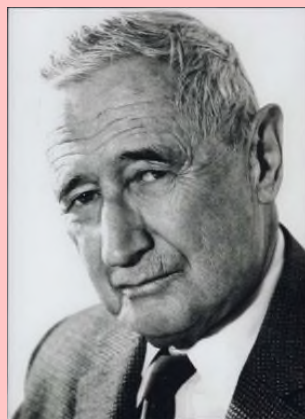

The Spirit of Militarism and Nahum Goldmann

"...the first task of our time is destruction: all social stratifications and social formations created by the old system must be destroyed, individuals must be torn out of their ancestral milieus; no tradition may be considered sacred any longer; old age is regarded only as a sign of illness; the slogan is: what was, must go...

In an army organized entirely according to the demands of militarism, there would be only one criterion for promotion: ability to command and lead. In the society that the militaristic spirit will rebuild, the same point of view will prevail: whoever is capable of ruling will rule."

- Nahum Goldmann, The Spirit of Militarism, 1915

Goldmann (1895-1982) photo [below] was a founder of the World Jewish Congress in 1936 and its president from 1951 to 1978. He was also president of the World Zionist Organization from 1956 to 1968.

The ruling regime is not the nation of Israel

Let's pause for a moment and reflect on the willingness of the Israeli government to conduct these barbarous acts in full view of the world's media. They must surely know that, when they see these ghastly images on their television screens night after night, a great many people around the world will assume that the nation of Israel is responsible, and not specifically the ruling regime. The media bias around the world is adding to this perception by failing to give a platform to the citizens of Israel who utterly reject what their government is doing in their name and have held well-attended street protests against Netanyahu and his regime.

Given that this has been going on for eighteen months or more, one must conclude that highly influential figures in Israel are training the world to hate the Jews and the nation of Israel. What is more they must know that this hatred will extend to Jews living in other countries. In short, the greatest source and promoter of Jew-hatred in the world today is the ruling regime in Israel.

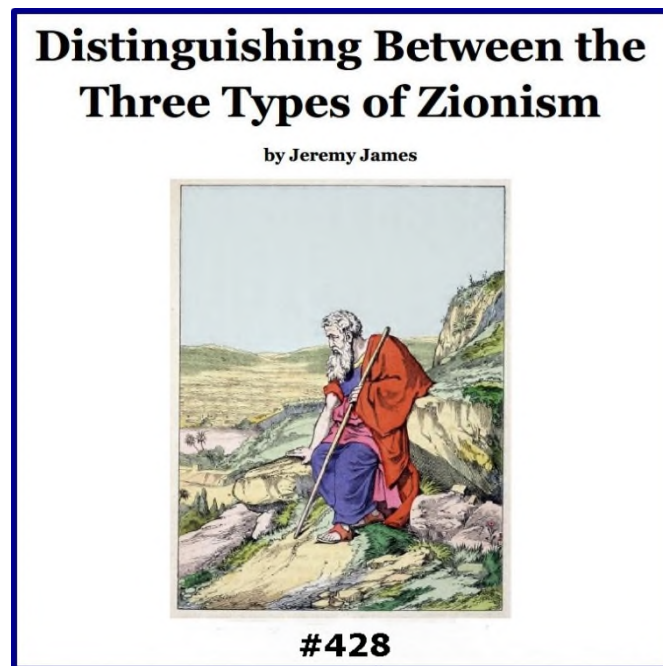

There are undoubtedly many Jewish people around the world who are greatly concerned at the way this anti-Jewish propaganda is being generated by the Netanyahu regime. However, their voices are not being heard. The world media is seemingly controlled by the same corporate interests who are enabling Netanyahu to conduct his campaign.

When it came to the use of visual propaganda, the Nazi regime was largely confined to the use of Jew-hating documentaries and movies in the local cinemas. Historians have confirmed that this was a very effective way of filling the minds of a great many Germans with imagery that was certain to stoke their latent contempt for Jews. This type of visual propaganda has been greatly magnified today by the inclusion in nightly news telecasts of heart-rending scenes from Gaza, depicting death, mutilation and destruction on an epic scale.

The indoctrinating effect of these images is bound to be many times greater than that produced by the Nazi campaign. As a result the proportion of the world's population who believe that the state of Israel, and Jewish people in general, pose a real threat to world peace is being greatly multiplied. Were a major military power to invade Israel and attempt to subjugate the nation for the sake of "world peace", there would likely be little international objection and no willingness to intercede on their behalf.

The real guiding force behind the Netanyahu government is the movement known as Secular Zionism, which we discussed in our previous paper. (#428).

Secular Zionism is ruthless

Secular Zionism is ruthless. Its leaders worship and serve the god of this world. They have no difficulty sacrificing a large segment of the Jewish population if it results ultimately in the fulfillment of their goal for world domination. They gladly allowed millions of Jews to die in the Holocaust (Shoah) in order to ensure that the U.N. would not oppose the creation of the state of Israel in 1948.

If Secular Zionism is ruthless, its 'god' is even more ruthless. Satan's aim is to destroy ALL Jews before a significant proportion of the world's Jews call in unison upon the LORD God of Jacob to send their Messiah, Jesus Christ. The Bible tells us that such a sub-group exists, that it has been preserved by God, and that the individuals concerned, the "righteous remnant", will do this. They will acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ as their Messiah and welcome him into their hearts.

In his last 'public' statement to the Jewish people Jesus said he would return to earth only when his people call on him to do so:

"For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."
(Matthew 23:39)

Satan wants to eliminate them before they can issue this heartfelt plea. If he can do this, he reasons, he will prevent the return of Jesus and save his own skin.

The great tragedy, of course, as recorded in several passages in the Old Testament, is that the righteous remnant will indeed call upon Jesus but will only do so at the very last moment, when Israel has endured incredible suffering and is at the point of being annihilated by her enemies.

For two thousand years Satan has fed the Jews with the garbled, mind-numbing pabulum of the Talmud and Kabbalah. While doing so he has kept them in subjection to a ruling elite, a caste comprising high-ranking religious leaders, occult practitioners, and wealthy bankers.

Satan is training all mankind to hate the Jews

He is now training mankind to hate the Jews and has set a special program in place to do this. It began 20 years ago when Israel unilaterally disengaged from what is called the Gaza Strip, allowing it to be administered exclusively by the Arabs. This involved demolishing 21 Israeli settlements in the Strip and giving government compensation to the Jews living there who were now obliged to vacate the Strip. Most of the Jewish settlers, about 8,000, refused to go and were forcibly removed by the Sharon government.

Sharon and his colleagues knew that the Arab population in the Strip would swell enormously over the next 20 years, posing a threat to the security of Israel. Today it is over 2 million (compared to 7 million Jews and a further 2 million Arabs in Israel proper). So why did they go ahead and do this?

To answer this question we must turn once more to Satan's plan. He wants the whole world to hate Israel and every Jew on earth (For a detailed look at this subject see our paper #369). He knows that the righteous remnant whom the LORD is preserving is located among them. By setting up a massive target, a huge population of Arab civilians close to national Israel, and then killing them off gradually before the eyes of the world, he knows that all nations will end up hating Israel.

We have already shown in a previous paper (#367) that the Hamas attack on Israel on 7 October 2023 could not have been carried out without the complicity of high-ranking officers in the IDF and the foreknowledge of the Israeli government. The attack itself, which resulted in the death or kidnap of hundreds of Israeli civilians, was intended to provide Israel with a pretext to attack and destroy Gaza. It was all part of a wider plan to antagonize the entire Islamic world and, in conjunction with other military operations, such as the attack on Iran on 12 June, to provoke a general conflagration across the Middle East that would involve the US military on the side of Israel. From the chaos that would result they intend to create their 'Greater Israel'.

If this plan is to work, the US must be drawn into the conflict. This will require massive US ordnance, air power, and a substantial number of troops on the ground. The Secular Zionists know they must keep the American public on side until this has been achieved. Therefore any criticism of AIPAC (the American Israel Public Affairs Committee) or other influential institutions sympathetic to the cause of 'Greater Israel' must be suppressed.

The introduction of severe censorship laws in the US

We know the date set for the start of this wider regional conflagration in the Middle East must be getting very close because the censorship laws in the US are being dramatically expanded.

On 13 February, 2025, Tim Scott, Senator for S Carolina, introduced a Bill (S.558) titled 'Antisemitism Awareness Act of 2025'. It was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Below the navigation bar, a legislative recap for July 3, 2025, mentions the Reconciliation Bill. The main heading is 'S. 558: Antisemitism Awareness Act of 2025'. Below this, there are buttons for 'Track S. 558', 'Call or Write Congress', and 'Add to List'. A tabbed interface shows 'Overview' as the active tab. The overview text states the bill's purpose: to provide for the consideration of a definition of antisemitism set forth by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance for the enforcement of Federal antidiscrimination laws concerning education programs or activities, and for other purposes. It also notes that the bill's titles are written by its sponsor. Below this, a 'Sponsor and status' section features a photo of Tim Scott, identified as the Sponsor, Junior Senator for South Carolina, Republican. To his right is a thumbnail of the bill's text and a 'Read Text »' link. At the bottom left, a status bar indicates the bill was 'Introduced' on Feb. 13, 2025. On the right side of the page, there's a large, empty yellow rectangular area.

The Bill proposes that US Federal Law be amended to make expressions of antisemitism a criminal offense, where antisemitism will be defined by reference to the definition adopted on 26 May 2016 by the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) in its “working definition of antisemitism.”

Most countries have laws which protect individuals and groups from oppressive forms of discrimination based on their religion or ethnicity. Normally these are designed to leave room for fair criticism and what we usually call ‘free speech’. Such laws are now being used to stifle free speech and criminalize reasonable expressions of concern about the conduct of certain groups. This new Bill, S.558, proposes that Federal law relating to antisemitism should adopt whatever definition of ‘hatred’ the Jewish community itself decides is appropriate.

The definition set forth in May 2016 is exceptionally detailed. No other potential ‘victims’ of hate-based discrimination have been allowed to define what constitutes a crime against them. Rather the courts have always weighed the rights of the accused against those of the alleged victim and made a determination based on accepted constitutional principles. The Bill (S.558) will effectively deprive the US judicial system of its ability to make such a determination but will instead oblige it to criminalise activities selected by the IHRA.

We give below an extract from the sample list of activities which the IHRA definition of 2016 states are antisemitic and thus likely to incur criminal sanction under Federal law if S.558 is approved:

- Making mendacious [deliberately false], dehumanizing, demonizing, or stereotypical allegations about Jews as such or the power of Jews as collective – such as, especially but not exclusively, the myth about a world Jewish conspiracy or of Jews controlling the media, economy, government or other societal institutions.
- Accusing the Jews as a people, or Israel as a state, of inventing or exaggerating the Holocaust.
- Accusing Jewish citizens of being more loyal to Israel, or to the alleged priorities of Jews worldwide, than to the interests of their own nations.
- Denying the Jewish people their right to self-determination, e.g., by claiming that the existence of a State of Israel is a racist endeavor.
- Using the symbols and images associated with classic antisemitism (e.g., claims of Jews killing Jesus or blood libel) to characterize Israel or Israelis.
- Drawing comparisons of contemporary Israeli policy to that of the Nazis.
- Holding Jews collectively responsible for actions of the state of Israel.

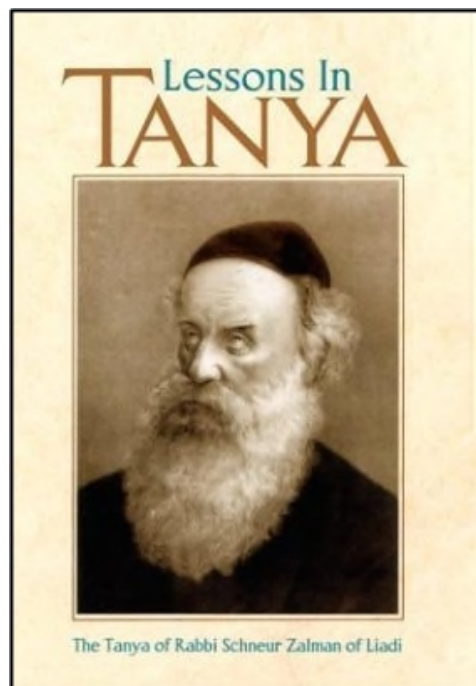

For decades it has been possible for American citizens to express opinions along these lines and, generally speaking, the courts have upheld such expressions as a right under the First Amendment of 1791. Freedom of speech itself has always been viewed by American courts as a basic principle underpinning democracy. If similar opinions were expressed about another ethnic group, such as Mexicans or Moroccans, or another religious group, such as Mormons or Muslims, they would be protected by the First Amendment, even if one did not agree with any of them.

The Jewish leadership in America wants to outlaw all criticism of Jews and Israel, as well as criticism of any institution that is perceived by many to be controlled or unduly influenced by them. It has long been argued that supporters of 'Greater Israel' have undue influence over Hollywood, the national press, and the major television networks. If S.558 is passed into law, it will be a criminal offense to express this opinion.

It could also be a crime to draw attention to the ‘Jewish Soul’ doctrine which teaches that “the soul of a non-Jew is purely animal in nature.” This doctrine, which is widely held by Secular Zionists, is perceived by many as a threat to the security and well-being of non-Jews in any environment or jurisdiction under Jewish control.

Hanan Balk is the rabbi emeritus of Congregation Agudas Israel in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 2013 he published a paper titled The Soul of a Jew and the Soul of a Non-Jew. In it he referred to the Alter Rebbe, R. Shneur Zalman, founder of the Chabad Lubavitch sect, and his views on the Jewish soul. He noted that:

R. Shneur Zalman [also known as the Alter Rebbe] affirms the concept that the soul of a Jew is literally a part of God and the Divine essence (“helek Elokah mima'al mamesh”), while the soul of a non-Jew is purely animal in nature. Even righteous gentiles, while possessing an element of good within their souls, do not possess a Divine soul. Indeed, when asked if an English translation of the Tanya [a foundational text in Chabad] should omit this teaching for fear that it might lead to resentment and anti-Semitism, the last Rebbe of Chabad, R. Menachem Mendel Schneersohn (1902-1994), responded that the words should not be omitted or changed.... [The Rebbe added that] “the words of the Alter Rebbe may even be an understatement.”

Christians should take careful note of another ‘antisemitic crime’ on the IHRA list, namely the claim, upheld by the New Testament, that the Jewish authorities in Jerusalem were directly responsible for the execution of Jesus. It is astonishing to think that any preacher or pastor who refers to this in a sermon could be charged with a criminal offense! Equally the owners of stores or retail outlets that stock the New Testament – which includes numerous verses supporting this claim – could be charged with a hate crime.

We could discuss these alleged crimes at length, but we’ll leave it to our readers to weigh the possible implications, both immediate and longterm, of a Federal censorship law that criminalizes citizens for exercising their right to free speech in this way. Its totalitarian character ought to be obvious. Before long the so-called Noahide Laws – strongly supported by the Chabad sect – could be in force and any Christian who declared that Jesus Christ was the Son of God would be taken away and beheaded (See our paper #183).

Secular Zionism wants to silence its critics

What is now happening before our eyes is extremely serious.

Secular Zionism wants to silence its critics. Coercive and oppressive laws are being introduced to ensure that anyone who speaks out will pay the price. Just how punitive the penalties will be under S.558 remains to be seen, but we can be sure that high-profile critics will be toppled and open, unfettered discourse will dwindle to a trickle.

Christian Zionists should reconsider their role in all of this. By siding with the Netanyahu regime (Secular Zionism) they are placing the “righteous remnant” of Israel in danger. The perceived integrity and moral standing of these people is being greatly compromised by the actions of their government. Also, by allowing Bills like S.558 to pass into law, Christian Zionists are giving up their own right to debate the future of Israel in a rational and informed manner. They are also lending credibility to the claim that US military intervention in the Middle East will be essential to protect Israel. So, when the mandatory military draft is introduced, they will gladly send their sons and daughters to die for the Secular Zionists.

Denmark today, America tomorrow

As of July 1, all 18-year-old women in Denmark must register for potential mandatory military service. Denmark is one of only a handful of nations to draft women into combat roles. If voluntary enlistments fall short of the annual target, a lottery system will be used to select female recruits from the register.

They have forgotten that God Himself will defend Israel. He has said again and again that He will not allow her to be annihilated by her enemies. Unfortunately, to their shame, Christian Zionists do not appear to attach much credence to this assurance! They listen willingly to the Secular Zionists but ignore God's Word.

The LORD will not even require the Israelis to take up arms in their own defense during the Gog-Magog invasion. Instead He will deal directly with the invading armies Himself!

Chapters 38 and 39 of the Book of Ezekiel describe this remarkable event – see extracts in Appendix A attached.

The Gog-Magog Invasion

Let's look at some of these verses and see just how powerfully the LORD expresses His contempt for Gog and his invading army. According to chapter 38, fury will come up in His face; there will be a great shaking in the land of Israel; every enemy soldier will cut down one or more of his own comrades; and the LORD will send a grievous pestilence upon their armies, along with a massive storm of hail, fire and sulphur. In doing this He will "magnify" Himself, meaning He will show the whole world just Who He is!

He gives further details of His personal intervention in chapter 39: The weapons in the hands of the invading soldiers will be struck from their hands! Five out of every six will die on the field of battle, leaving a scene of astounding desolation. The LORD twice calls this a sacrifice which He has sacrificed for Israel, and underlines His contempt by sending enormous flocks of carrion birds to Israel to feed on their flesh!

By allowing one enemy soldier in six to survive and return to his homeland, He will enable the population of Gog, and the world as a whole, to hear astonishing firsthand accounts of the total destruction that the God of Israel inflicted on the invaders. The whole world will get to hear what He did, with military carnage strewn across the land – an unbelievable demonstration of divine wrath. He will then send complete destruction on Russia and all nations that joined the Gog alliance.

This staggering massacre, in which the people of Israel did not have to lift a finger, will have a profound effect on them. They will know beyond all doubt that God, the LORD God of Israel, did this! Their hearts will be greatly moved and they will finally, as a nation, recognize and acknowledge the LORD God who gave them the Torah, the God of the Covenant, the God who said He would never leave them. Their Living God!

Does this mean they have accepted Jesus? No. Absolutely not. They are only starting to regain their sight. In this respect they are like the blind man whom Jesus took by the hand and led out of the village. Unlike any miraculous healing performed by Jesus, this one had two phases:

“And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.” (Mark 8:22-26)

The first phase corresponds to the partial restoration of sight when the nation of Israel sees that God the Father intervened personally to preserve them. The full restoration of their sight will occur only when the Son of God, Jesus of Nazareth, intervenes personally and annihilates all of their enemies at Armageddon.

The annihilation of the Gog alliance, not just their armies but the entire group of nations involved, will create both an opportunity and a crisis for the Antichrist. The removal of the Russian bloc will leave a huge power vacuum which he will rush to exploit. The crisis, however, will force his hand. He will see that the people of Israel have undergone a profound shift in their spiritual understanding. There is a real risk that this will cause them to see this wicked impostor for the monster he is, so he hastens to Jerusalem to claim he is their long-promised savior and messiah.

Meanwhile Satan kills the Two Witnesses and leaves their bodies in a street in Jerusalem, presumably to mimic what God the Father did to the dead soldiers of Gog. After three and a half days, they come back to life and ascend to heaven! The whole world is watching! The shock is certain to be immense. The urgency for the Antichrist could hardly be greater. He cannot afford to delay even an hour. Thus the “abomination of desolation” takes place and the whole of Israel is thrown into turmoil.

CONCLUSION

As we get closer to the events described in the Book of Revelation and in other parts of Scripture we should be able to knit together prophetic details which seemed somewhat obscure to previous generations. While the spirit of Antichrist is currently tightening its grip over the whole of humanity, we can better discern how the Enemy’s dark schemes are likely to play out. Throughout all this we need to continually bear in mind that the LORD God will do everything – everything! – that He has promised to do. Thus it is vital that Christians study His Word over and over and become increasingly familiar with the scenes He is describing.

The problem with Christian Zionism is that it has allowed Secular Zionism, a tool and willing vehicle of the Antichrist spirit, “the spirit of militarism”, to interpret the Bible for them. This is a very serious error and they should be ashamed of themselves for doing so!

We would urge all born-again Christians to consider very carefully the case we are making in this paper, as well as its predecessor (#428). It is important to see that Satan is trying to turn the whole of mankind against the Jews, all with a view to destroying the righteous remnant who will accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah on his return. As we never tire of repeating, he believes that if he can destroy this remnant, there will be no Jews left to issue the call prophesied by Jesus in Matthew 23:39.

He also plans to destroy all non-Jews who turn to Christ after the Rapture has taken place. He knows that if they are left alive, their prayers will greatly hamper his plan to enslave all nations and exterminate the righteous remnant.

APPENDIX B

The Book of Ezekiel

CHAPTER 38

[14] Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

[15] And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

[16] And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

[17] Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

[18] And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

[19] For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; ...

[21] And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

[22] And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

[23] Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 39

[2] And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

[3] And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

[4] Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

[5] Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

[6] And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

[7] So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

[8] Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken...

[13] Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD...

[17] And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood...

[19] And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you ...

[21] And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

[22] So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.
