

Witchcraft is Now Being Openly Supported by the Irish Government

by Jeremy James

The Wiccan Calendar Wheel

It is difficult to believe how quickly Ireland has fallen. The spiritual collapse over the past fifteen years has been astonishing. Strong walls that had stood firm for more than fifteen hundred years are now crumbling.

A new subjective morality is in vogue. Right and wrong are now relative terms, shaped largely by cultural norms, the changing social environment, and personal aspirations. The generations that came before us were far from perfect, but they consistently acknowledged the existence of a moral order which transcended the imagination of man. If ever they failed to meet the unchanging demands of that order, they understood the need to make amends for their actions and to reaffirm their commitment to the immutable values established by God.

It is unnecessary to review the origin of this incredible moral decay or the multiplicity of factors that brought it about. As we know, they can all be traced to a single source. There is no need to conduct a detailed forensic analysis and condense the results into a multi-volume thesis. None of that is necessary because the answer is simple – extremely simple. The Word of God expressed it in just one sentence:

“The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.”
(Psalm 9:17)

When they voted in favor of ‘same-sex marriage’ on 22 May 2015, the people of Ireland rejected God. When they voted in favor of abortion on 25 May 2018, they rejected God yet again. These rejections show that the Creator of heaven and earth is no longer recognized by these people. They have “forgotten” Him, and have chosen to express their rejection in emphatic terms.

Ireland is now entering the hell that it made for itself when it forgot God.

The Enemy delights in harming women and children

What would one expect to find in this “hell” but the very things that are most pleasing to Satan. The people of Ireland have chosen the god of this world and, in doing so, they have chosen the things that are pleasing to the god of this world. Chief among these is witchcraft, which we will get to in a moment. The Enemy also delights in harming women and children. So the Irish government continues to attack the family, having abolished Christian marriage in 2015 and attempted to make civil marriage nothing more than a “durable relationship” in 2024.

The murder of unborn children is now endemic in this country. For every five children or so who are born alive, one is killed before birth for social convenience. (There were 55,000 live births in 2023 and over 10,000 abortions). For the witches of Ireland, who regard abortion as a sacred rite, this slaughter is a pleasing blood sacrifice to Satan.

This “hell” has been reinforced by other infernal measures, notably the legal corruption of the Biblical distinction between male and female persons. The Gender Recognition Act of 2015, which the Government passed in a stealthy and deceitful manner in order to forestall public opposition, allows a person to ‘change’ from male to female (or vice versa) and to be recognized as such for all statutory purposes. (A similar law is due to come into effect in Germany on 1 November 2024. It will provide for four ‘genders’ – male, female, diverse, and none – and anyone who wishes to change their official gender annually may do so.)

This so-called LGBTQ agenda will greatly harm women by enabling men who “self identify” as ‘female’ to infiltrate all of the institutions that were formally exclusive to women. These include women’s prisons, women’s shelters [which are intended to protect them from abuse by men], women’s sports, women’s clubs, women’s bathrooms, the women’s section of various societies and groups, and so forth. The scope for abuse is endless. Women and mothers are being mocked and debased by this vile legislation. So too is the family. What kind of Government would authorise such a thing? – one that serves Satan and works with him to undermine and destroy what remains of Christian society!

The ‘Queering’ of Children

Children are an especially important target in this attack since the Wicked despise their innocence. As we showed in our two previous papers on school-based indoctrination (#400 and #401) the sexualization or “queering” of school children is well under way across Ireland. Following the introduction of the SPHE program in 2023, they are now being taught the following:

The Satanic perversion of Christian morality

- (a) A boy can ‘identify’ as a girl and a girl can ‘identify’ as a boy. The program distinguishes between the concept of gender and the physical/biological attributes at childbirth (usually called ‘sexual characteristics’). The former (gender) is something one chooses to identify with, as implied by the ‘Gender Recognition’ Act. A male who is fully intact and is not undergoing female hormone treatment can still ‘identify’ as a female for all statutory purposes. It is deemed an offense under the law to refuse to recognize a person’s changed gender identity. If a big brawny man with a bushy beard identifies as a “woman” then he is legally entitled to be referred to as “she”. This is patently so grotesque, so contrary to common sense and human decency, that it can only be described as a Satanic perversion of Christian morality.

The fraud known as gender identity

- (b) According to the false doctrines of the SPHE clique, one's sexual orientation is not biologically determined but is something one chooses. Children are being taught that it is perfectly normal for a boy to foster same-sex desires and to identify as a homosexual. The expression of his effeminacy, through his choice of clothing and mode of behavior, ought to be considered normal, they allege, even when he has not reached puberty. Parental attempts to correct his behavior or his 'orientation' can be construed as an offense. Also attempts by a third party, such as a minister of religion, to counsel the child could be construed as an offense which could result in a prison sentence. A Bill to outlaw 'conversion therapy' is currently before the Seanad.

Normalizing pornography

- (c) Some forms of pornography, sometimes called 'ethical porn', are deemed suitable for viewing by children. Seemingly children should not be made to feel that pornography is unnatural or immoral. Some kinds of pornography can be educational or instructive. Children are being advised to use their discernment when deciding the type of pornography they watch. One influential child educator in Ireland has devised and advertised what she calls a 'porn alphabet' for children which includes terms like "gang-bang", "bondage", "fisting", "anal ass-eating", and more. Known as 'porn literacy', it is a brazen and shameful invitation to children to view pornography.

This 'endorsement' appears on the first page of the 8-page chapter on Masturbation in the SPHE textbook for schoolchildren called My Wellbeing Journey, intended for boys and girls aged 12-15.

Promoting sexual exploration and promiscuity

- (d) The SPHE indoctrination takes a very laissez-faire approach to sexual promiscuity and experimentation ("Congratulations – You're becoming a sexual being!") Children are given the impression that there are no "rules" and that what is appropriate for one child may not be appropriate for another. Many students will be impatient to experience what the program dwells on continually, namely sexual exploration, whether inside or outside a 'relationship'.

Exploiting ‘relationship education’ to promote sexual expression

- (e) The program hijacks the term “relationship” and uses it as a license to excuse what might not otherwise be acceptable. It frequently implies that sexual activity is a sign of a mature romantic relationship with another person. The textbooks do nothing to allay the child’s belief – or indoctrinated expectation – that when the ‘right’ person comes along, it will be okay to engage in sexual exploration with him/her.

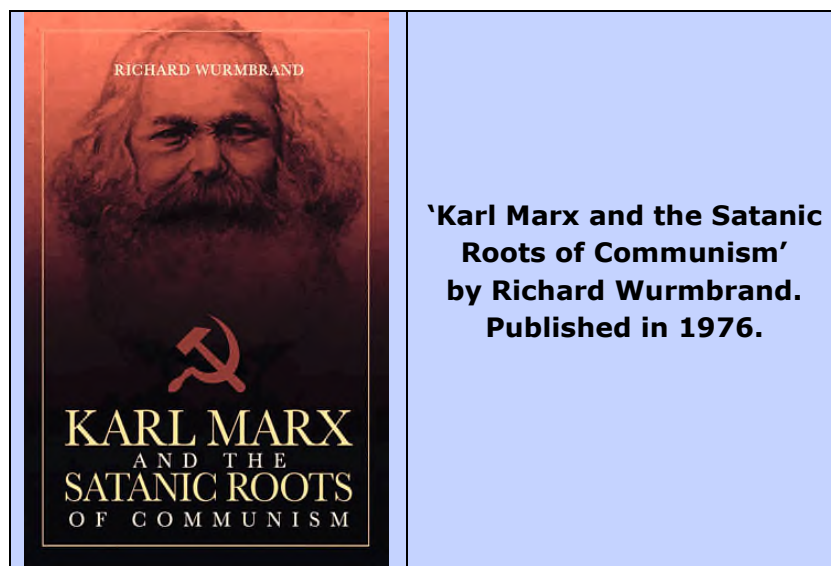

Advocating the habit of masturbation for both boys and girls

- (f) The constant reference to the role of sexual activity in healthy human behavior is used to promote masturbation. While the textbook pretends to take a ‘scientific’ approach to the subject, the child is left with the impression that masturbation is a necessary part of his or her sexual development and that regular recourse to this activity is both healthy and natural. Since the course developers are well aware that virtually all children aged 12 and over have ready access to graphic pornographic material on their smartphones, the inclusion of this 8-page section on masturbation is essentially a tacit invitation to use such imagery for self-gratification.

Promoting a precocious interest in sexuality

- (g) The program exposes children to sexual ideas which are entirely inappropriate for their age. This ‘sexualization’ process is dangerous since it will lead many children to become excessively interested in sexual activity and to speculate constantly on whether or not they are keeping up with their peers. This fascination with sexual experience will leave many children vulnerable to grooming, whether by older children or adult pedophiles.

All of these – (a) to (g) – are well understood by the older, conservative generation. Nevertheless, the dangers inherent in the program ought to be obvious to most people. Only a Marxist academic could devise such a depraved method of education, and only a Marxist government could put it into effect.

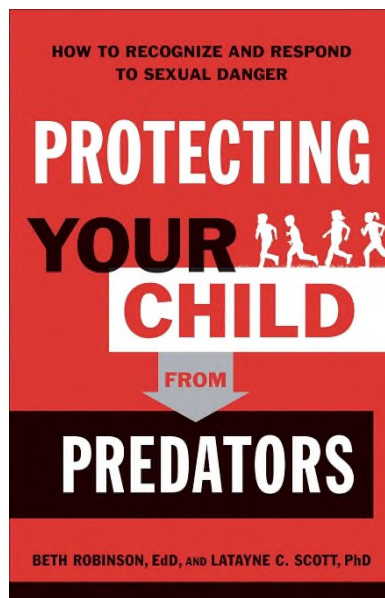

The older generation can discern the source of this terrible threat to society. They can see that Marxism itself is a political system designed to overthrow the old social order, to undermine and abolish traditional Christian institutions, and to install the state as the sole custodian of moral values and societal norms. Marx and those who sponsored his work were practitioners of the occult, principally in the form known as Kabbalah or Babylonian witchcraft. Thus the anarchic worldview of Marxism is grounded in a very old religious system. Not only does it loath Christianity but believes it has a duty to destroy it. This is the same system that the Antichrist will try to impose on the world as a whole in the End Time.

Two wicked practises that are immensely pleasing to Satan

Witchcraft attaches great importance to two practices that are immensely pleasing to Satan – (a) the killing of children and (b) the sexual abuse of children. In both cases children are the victims and the perpetrators are servants of Satan. The evil behind this is almost impossible to comprehend. Jesus referred to it when he solemnly warned:

“It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.” (Luke 17:1-2)

Once one understands this primal urge among all who serve Satan, it is possible to see why most governments around the world today have legalized abortion (the killing of children) and the infliction of LGBTQ propaganda on schoolchildren (to make them more susceptible to sexual predation).

Does this mean that all governments are opposed to true Biblical Christianity? Absolutely! The Cabal despise it because, for the past two thousand years, it has obstructed their plan to create a central world government headed by Satan’s appointee, the Antichrist.

The Holy Spirit indwells all who believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God. The unclean spirits that work through the servants of Satan are unable to withstand the light of true believers. A demon must leave its victim or host when ordered to do so in the name of Jesus. Shamans, witches, necromancers and soothsayers try to keep well away from born-again Christians. In the US, for example, there are many towns where the vast majority of the population are Satanists. Outwardly they dress and behave like everyone else, but they fear the power of Christian prayer and, until recently, would never risk doing anything that would draw attention to themselves.

Jesus was speaking about the Wicked when he said:

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity... Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?” (Matthew 23:27-33)

The Word of God is referring here to the characteristic behavior of Satanists throughout the ages. Every country has its share of them. They eagerly await the day when their ‘prince’, the Antichrist, reigns on earth and there are no Christians left to interrupt or oppose their communion with darkness.

God warned us about these people and their intentions

The work of this international Cabal is at a very advanced stage. Through their witchcraft, sorcery and Kabbalah they have manoeuvred themselves into positions of enormous political influence and financial control. Their ability to conceal their real intentions behind an innocuous facade, a veil of philanthropy and good-will, is extraordinary. Despite many mistakes on their part in recent years, most people are still unaware of their existence. They are masters of deception and make great use of the human tendency to believe their empty promises. The marked decline in true Christian belief over the past century has hidden from the eyes of millions the many plain statements in the Word of God which warn of their existence, their allegiance to darkness, and their determination to eliminate the righteous.

 GEORGE H.W. BUSH PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY & MUSEUM Master Tapes # MT1033 and MT1034 Address Before a Joint Session of Congress 11 September 1990 Credit: George Bush Presidential Library and Museum NATIONAL ARCHIVES MT1033 and MT1034 Address Before a Joint Session of Congress - 11 September 1990	The official announcement by the President of the United States on 11 September 1990 that a 'New World Order' would shortly be established.
--	---

President George H Bush announced the decision by the Cabal to proceed with the introduction of their long-planned ‘new world order’ during his speech to a joint session of the US Congress on 11 September, 1990:

“Out of these troubled times, our fifth objective – a new world order – can emerge: a new era – freer from the threat of terror, stronger in the pursuit of justice, and more secure in the quest for peace. An era in which the nations of the world, East and West, North and South, can prosper and live in harmony. A hundred generations have searched for this elusive path to peace, while a thousand wars raged across the span of human endeavor. Today that new world is struggling to be born, a world quite different from the one we've known. A world where the rule of law supplants the rule of the jungle.”

Brazen public expressions of their pagan beliefs

As they get closer to their goal, the Cabal indulges more and more in brazen public expressions of their ancient pagan religion. There are several reasons for this but the most relevant, in the context of this paper, is their desire to condition the public to regard these rituals as normal. Examples include the opening and closing ceremonies at the Olympics and the Commonwealth Games, the half-time shows at the Super Bowl, much of the pageantry at the Eurovision Song Contest, and most concert performances by major rock stars. The sponsors and organizers want to exalt the god of this world and are using rituals and symbols to do so.

Part of the dark occult ceremony at the opening of the London Olympics in 2012.

We have now reached the stage in Ireland where the state is not only sponsoring these events, but is doing so in an undisguised form. The symbolic veneer is being removed to reveal their original demonic purpose.

Perhaps some of our readers may be wondering if this is an exaggeration. Well, read what follows and see for yourself.

The Government-sponsored Púca Festival

The event in question is the annual Púca Festival held in County Meath over the three days of Halloween. Most of the activities center on two towns, Trim and Athboy.

We would like to make it clear from the outset that this is a state-sponsored event. It receives taxpayer funding and the official flyer lists the organizations concerned:

The state organizations listed along the bottom line of the flyer are shown in the chart overleaf, along with the Government Ministers with direct or indirect responsibility for the public body in question.

The official website describes the Festival as follows:

What is Púca festival?

The Púca Festival was developed by Fáilte Ireland in partnership with Local Authority stakeholders to tell the story of Halloween's origins in Irish and Celtic traditions. Samhain was an important event in the Celtic year, celebrating the harvest, and marking the division between the "light half of the year" and the "dark half of the year". 'Púca', a character from Celtic folklore often associated with Samhain, was chosen as the name for the festival. A shape-shifting spirit, Púca would roam the night, changing the fortunes of those that cross it, along with other spirits associated with Samhain, including Boann, Morrigan and An Fear Dearg.

Public Organization	Government Minister in charge
	 Catherine Martin, TD Minister for Tourism
	 Eamon Ryan, TD Minister for the Environment
	 Catherine Martin, TD Minister for Tourism
	 Paschal Donohoe, TD Minister for Public Expenditure

The Festival began in 2019 and was in receipt of public funding from the start. As The Irish Times stated on 25 October 2019, “The three-day event is a collaboration between Fáilte Ireland and events production company Curated Place, in partnership with Meath and Louth County Councils.”

The Festival is designed to highlight Halloween/Samhain

The sponsors openly market the event as a Samhain festival designed to highlight Halloween and ancient pagan traditions celebrated in Ireland before the arrival of St Patrick in 432 AD (See <https://pucafestival.com/>). It is named after a shape-shifting spirit called Púca which would roam the countryside at night, often in the company of other spirits named Boann, Morrigan and An Fear Dearg. They were frequently, though not always, malevolent. Púca was similar to the Norse god, Loki, a powerful supernatural trickster, while An Fear Dearg (the red man), known as the faerie of mischief, was given to playing gruesome jokes on his victims, such as switching an infant child with a changeling. Boann was the goddess of the river Boyne, while Morrigan was the goddess of war.

The Festival includes ‘The Lighting of the Samhain Fire’, which the official website describes as follows:

Lighting Of The Samhain Fire

📍 Fair Green Athboy 📅 Thursday 31st October 🕒 5:15pm (Subject to Change)

This Is A Public Event And Tickets Are Not Required.

The town of Athboy is steeped in the ancient traditions of Samhain, with historical records pointing to Tlachtga, or the Hill of Ward, as a significant gathering place during this time. On the eve of Halloween, Thursday, October 31st, as the sun dips below the horizon, the Fair Green in Athboy will come alive with the ceremonial lighting of the Samhain Fire. This is a public event and tickets are not required.

This powerful ritual serves to honour ancestors and bridge the gap between the physical and spiritual worlds. The flames will symbolically link the landscapes of Tlachtga, Tara, Loughcrew, Tailteann, and Uisneach, carrying messages to those who have passed before us.

Samhain is believed by the occult and pagan community to be a magical occasion each year when, for a short time, the so-called ‘veil’ or membrane between the physical and the supernatural worlds is said to be more porous than usual, allowing earth-dwellers an opportunity to contact the ‘spirit world’. The Púca sponsors refer to this necromantic communication as “carrying messages to those who have passed before us”.

The fire of Samhain refers to the fire that Prometheus (Lucifer) brought from heaven and gave to mankind. This is why Lucifer is often referred to as “the light bearer”. Samhain is thus a time of special significance in the occult, when Lucifer is exalted as the real god of this world. A similar ritual takes place with the lighting of the famous Olympic flame.

The sponsors say “this powerful ritual serves to honour ancestors” but they fail to mention that it does so by honoring Lucifer, the anointed cherub who rebelled against the LORD God of the Bible. The lighting of the Samhain fire is very obviously an occult ritual. Nevertheless it is billed as a public event and “tickets are not required.”

Another major activity in their program is the Púca Procession. This “Gathering of the Spirits” on Saturday 2nd November is described as the highlight of the Festival:

The Púca Procession

📍 Trim 📅 Saturday 2nd November 🕒 6:00PM (Subject to Change)

This Is A Public Event. Tickets Are Not Required.

Prepare to be enchanted! Four supernatural nights of music, comedy, and Halloween spectacle await you in the historic town of Trim and its magnificent castle grounds, all free to attend and open to the public. The highlight? The mesmerizing Púca Procession: The Gathering of the Spirits on Saturday, November 2nd.

This free, public procession will weave together outdoor theatre, street performance, and traditional music in a wild celebration of Samhain lore, nature, ancestry, and the looming darkness. As the veil between worlds thins, be prepared to witness shape-shifting spirits and otherworldly creatures emerging to join the revelry this year!

Participants at the Púca Procession are meant to be enchanted and mesmerized by the prospect of witnessing shape-shifting spirits and otherworldly creatures emerging to join their revelry. Presumably many of the attendees genuinely expect to have some kind of encounter with the supernatural realm, or at least to sense the proximity of the spirits in their midst, both the spirits of departed family members and the spirits of nature and the underworld.

The Púca Procession, when viewed in occult terms, is a form of magical invocation where the participant willingly invites an entity from the underworld to touch his life in some way. Anyone who does this is deliberately opening a door to the occult. It is a kind of open-air séance. Do they not understand how dangerous this is? Do they not realize that once any of these entities latch onto their victim, they can create torment and disturbances that may last for years, if not a lifetime? One’s dream state, for example, could become a series of terrifying nightmares that turn one’s life upside down. Heightened anxiety, depression and inexplicable panic and phobias can result from such reckless forays into the occult.

When our grandparents said, “Never dabble in the occult!” they did so for a very good reason. In our modern godless world, where even the most basic tenets of Christianity are being ignored, this warning is seldom heard.

The Festival includes a number of activities for children, most of which (as far as we can tell) have a dark dimension. Clearly the sponsors hope to foster a fascination with the occult among children and make them more vulnerable to demonic intrusion. All of this is exceedingly pleasing to Satan.

The Irish Government honors the Wiccan calendar

The goal of paganizing Ireland began decades ago. Satan and his servants plan well in advance. They know time is not on their side. The clock began to tick for Satan on Resurrection Sunday and he has little time left to save his skin. He is keenly aware that Jesus will shortly return to the earth and he intends to lure as many victims as he can into his wicked web of deception before that happens.

One of his ancient tools is still in use – the annual Occult Calendar, better known today as the Wiccan Wheel. The following chart shows how the Luciferian rulers of Ireland are honoring certain major dates in that calendar:

1 February [Imbolc / Candlemas]

Wikipedia states that this public holiday is “Co-celebrated with the traditional festival of Imbolc.” It also notes that Imbolc is a “religious holiday” for Celtic neopagans and Wiccans. Called ‘Candlemas’ on the Wiccan Wheel, it was first observed as a national holiday in Ireland in 2023.

1 May [Bealtaine]

“Corresponds with the traditional festival of Bealtaine... Special bonfires were kindled, whose flames, smoke and ashes were deemed to have protective powers.” (Wikipedia). It was first observed as a national holiday in Ireland in 1994.

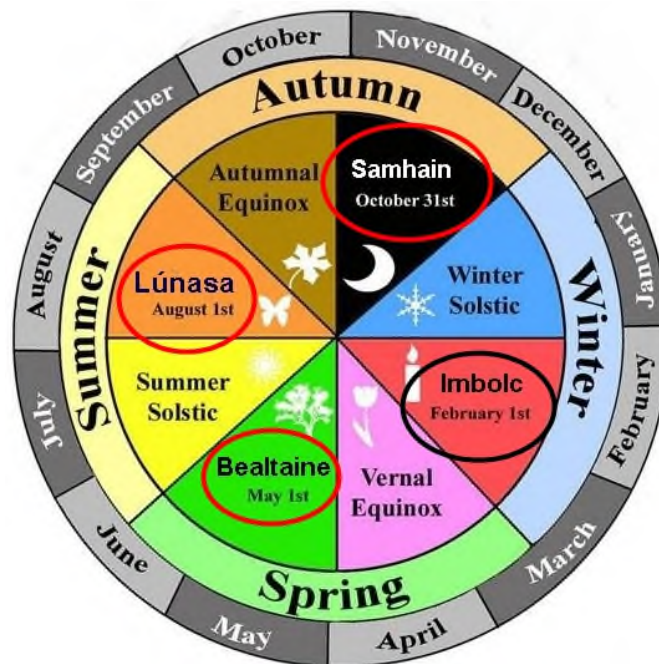

1 August [Lúnasa / Lammas]

“Corresponds with the traditional festival of Lúnasa” (Wikipedia). It is named in honor of the god Lúgh, the ancient Celtic equivalent of the Roman god, Mercury. It is also called ‘Lammas’ on the Wiccan Wheel. It was first observed as a national holiday in 1871 (when Ireland was still under British rule).

31 October [Samhain / Halloween]

This corresponds with the Celtic pagan festival of Samhain and was first observed as a national holiday in Ireland in 1977.

The following Wikipedia entry contains a lot of information about the annual Occult Calendar, also known as the Wiccan Wheel or Wheel of the Year: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Wheel_of_the_Year

These four public holidays correspond to the four High Sabbat feasts on the so-called Occult Calendar or Wiccan Wheel (The High Sabbats are also known as The Greater Sabbats or The Fire Festivals). They are esteemed by witches as the four most important occult dates in the year. It ought to be statistically impossible for all four to be accorded official recognition as national public holidays by the ruling establishment unless the Government understood what the dates actually signified.

Three of the four were introduced fairly recently – Samhain in 1977, Bealtaine in 1994, and, last year (2023), Imbolc.

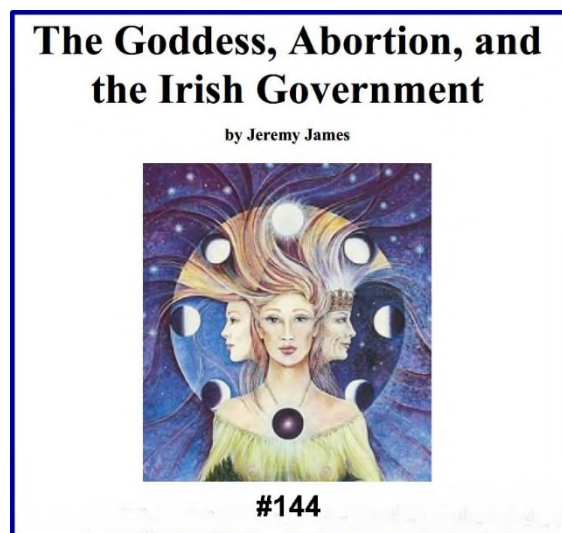

High-level practitioners of witchcraft are obliged to conduct human sacrifices on each of these High Sabbats, while lower-level initiates will sacrifice an animal or make an offering. The Púca Festival website, for example, asks that attendees at the ‘Reaching to the Ancestors’ workshops bring along an offering. It states: “Participants are kindly asked to bring an offering for their ancestors as a gesture of respect and remembrance.”

It is important to understand that the spirits of the dead have NO communication with the living and that all such offerings are being made to demons.

The Government is waging war on our Christian institutions

In an earlier paper – The Goddess, Abortion, and the Irish Government (#144) – we showed the extent to which those who control our political system are actually pagan. This is why it is so easy for them to legalize abortion, same-sex marriage, and perverse laws relating to gender identity. These are all aspects of paganism! The Government is waging war on our Christian institutions and imposing their own belief system on the Irish people.

The Irish, alas, are too lacking in spiritual discernment and knowledge of God’s Word to understand what their political leaders are up to. The traditional distinction between sheep and wolves may be too weak to capture the woeful disparity in awareness between the two sides.

In that paper (#144), which was published in 2017, we revealed how a prominent Minister of State at the time, who had played a major role in promoting gender ‘fluidity’ and same-sex ‘marriage’, was a deeply committed follower of the brand of neo-paganism taught by the self-professed witch, Miriam Simos. Ms Simos published several influential books under the pen-name ‘Starhawk’, one of which is cited in the Wikipedia entry on the Wiccan Wheel which we just mentioned.

CONCLUSION

When a nation has lost its fear of the LORD, its respect for the unconditional sovereignty of God, it has fallen entirely under the control of Satan. Its citizens are unable to distinguish clearly between good and evil, and as more of its traditional institutions are demolished, this blindness only increases. Before long, what was once seen as evil is made to seem good and those who espouse traditional values and voice their concerns are portrayed as troublemakers and bigots:

“An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, and he who is upright in the way is an abomination
to the wicked.” (Proverbs 29:27)

This is where Ireland is today. Anyone who speaks out against the Government’s perversion of Biblical values is branded a purveyor of ‘hate speech’ or a ‘right-wing extremist’. Meanwhile, those who continue to support the Government and keep the regime in power are behaving like fools. They are easily manipulated and take pleasure in ‘change’ and ‘progress’ – “To do evil is like sport to a fool” (Proverbs 10:23)

They have neither knowledge nor a love of knowledge:

“The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge:
but fools despise wisdom and instruction.”
(Proverbs 1:7)

The curse of false democracy

Most nations have been taught to believe that their political leaders emerge from the ranks of the common people and, having demonstrated an aptitude for leadership, are appointed by the electorate to govern the country for 4-5 years. This is a fairy-tale for children. In reality, the real power brokers select the people they want from their own ranks and place them by various means in positions of influence. In other words, our alleged leaders were “bought” even before they entered public office.

All political parties, virtually without exception, are working for the same elite Cabal. This is why our Government, which is politically Marxist in its ideology and conduct, is working to destroy Christianity in Ireland. It is doubtful whether more than 2-3 members of the Oireachtas (Dáil and Seanad) are even vaguely Christian. The vast majority are neo-pagan. To the extent that they pretend otherwise, they are liars and deceivers.

The subversive policies that the Government is implementing with such arrogance and determination are those which match their neo-pagan worldview. But they are not following this schedule on their own initiative. Rather it has been set for them by the so-called Globalists, the ultra-rich international Cabal, all of whom are generational Luciferians. They want our country, and the world as a whole, to convert to the system of Babylonian witchcraft which they practise themselves.

Just look at the parallels. They ought to unsettle even the most incorrigible naysayers in our society:

Tenets and beliefs of Witchcraft	Modern political methods to put them into effect
Child sacrifice is central to high-level witchcraft. Innocent blood must be shed regularly to please the gods.	Abortion (paid for by the State). Especially attractive to the Elite is late-term abortion without pain-relief for the child victim.
Eliminating those who are a burden on society. The gods despise human weakness.	Euthanasia. The Irish government are working hard on this one. They like to call it 'end of life care' or something equally preposterous.
The gods are androgynous and those who serve them should possess both male and female characteristics.	The Gender Recognition Act. The genital mutilation of children and adults. The abolition of male and female as absolute terms.
The gods have sexual intercourse with whomever they choose. Practitioners of the occult conduct orgies involving both sodomitic and lesbian activity.	The promotion of pornography and a heightened interest in sexual activity among school children via SPHE. This is being done to increase the level of sexual promiscuity in society.

Tenets and beliefs of Witchcraft	Modern political methods to put them into effect
The gods are pederastic or pedophilic. Sexual activity with minors is believed to increase one's occult power. It is also used to open the child victim to demonic influence and instil in him or her a lust for homosexual activity.	The entire LGBTQ program is designed to break down traditional moral limitations on sexual activity. The SPHE course in public schools is meant to indoctrinate children with LGBTQ concepts and prepare them to engage in such behavior in later life. It is also intended to greatly lower the age of consent and permit children to engage in sexual acts with adults.
In general, witchcraft does not recognize the integrity of the family unit. A woman can have children by several men, and men can father children by several women. The children are chattels in a tribal community. Bigamy and polyamory are common. Female witches frequently exercise authority over their male counterparts.	The Government has continued to attack the institution of the family in Ireland. Divorce is legal and fairly easy to obtain. Unmarried couples enjoy rights akin to a married couple. Same-sex 'marriage' is now legal. A husband can change his legal gender from male to female without even consulting his wife. The state can completely extinguish the bond between parent and child without the agreement of either the parent or the child. The state can also make far-reaching decisions affecting the child, notably in the field of education, without the parents' consent.
Mankind is required to worship and appease the gods. In return the stronger gods will protect humanity from mischief or predation by the weaker gods.	Abortion, sodomy, genital mutilation, sexual promiscuity, etc. are ways of pleasing or worshipping the gods. So too are neo-pagan ceremonies like the Samhain Fire, the Púca Procession, and events that expose children to occult activities such as necromancy and spirit manifestations.

Tenets and beliefs of Witchcraft	Modern political methods to put them into effect
Witchcraft teaches reincarnation and communication with the spirits of one's ancestors.	The four Greater Sabbats are spokes in a Wheel that is meant to regulate all human existence. It is utterly opposed to Christianity and denies the deity of Jesus.
Blasphemy is an important part of witchcraft, especially at the higher levels. Rituals and invocations that are offensive to the LORD God of the Bible and His Son, Jesus Christ, are commonly practised. Witches frequently boast of their success in infiltrating Christian churches and sowing dissent.	During the Covid 'pandemic', a grossly exaggerated threat to human health, the Government passed laws and regulations which directly attacked Christianity: churches were closed, funerals were limited to a few attendees, Christian marriages were deferred, and the elderly were left to die alone. It became virtually impossible under lockdown conditions to preach the Gospel. During 1500 years of Christian worship in Ireland, such blasphemous prohibitions, affecting all denominations, were unknown.
Witches has always sought to limit the extent to which Christians can expose their activities, often resorting to extreme measures to silence their critics.	The Government has continued to press for the introduction of draconian 'hate speech' legislation to silence its critics.

Note: As you review this table, please bear in mind that the so-called 'gods' are actually demons.

By supporting the public practise of witchcraft in Ireland and subsidizing the Púca Festival – using taxpayers' money – the Government has taken a major step towards the paganization of our country.

Where will all of this lead unless it is stopped? Well, witchcraft is all about darkness. And darkness leads to destruction and untold suffering. Halloween or Samhain is a dangerous manifestation of man's inability to steer clear of the occult. The entities invoked at these events, or sought out by those who attend, are far from harmless. They may seem like 'beings of light' initially, but their true nature only becomes apparent when we try to pull away from them and give our life to Jesus.

I would recommend the following testimony on YouTube by a former witch. Other former witches tell a similar story, as do former members the New Age movement:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PFAXuDAPKD0>

Here is a salutary extract from her presentation. She begins by describing Halloween as a time when a great many people align themselves with darkness. She called it “a massive spell night”. They foolishly believe they are contacting beings of light and that, by channeling this supernatural energy, they are serving as ‘Light Workers’. She then describes how she found the underlying reality:

“I had no idea when I was in the occult that I was really riddled with demons, really riddled with so much darkness, until I came to Christ and he filled me with his Light, and those things [the entities] were revealed and exposed for what they are...

“The different forces that Light Workers [neo-pagans] believe are light and good, these spirit guides and entities which people who are in witchcraft see as light – they are not light, they are darkness! They are all dark!

“Only when we come to Christ do they reveal their true colors, and I have been in that [situation], and it’s terrifying.

“It’s absolutely terrifying to truly see what these entities [are], that these characters and personalities who are consulting you are truly absolutely pure evil – pure evil.

“...I’ve never experienced or known such hatred and wanting-to-tear-you-apart as I have when I came to Christ and then those entities that I was dealing with, who were guiding me and showing me so much, y’know, wisdom, and giving me dreams and prophecy and leading me on this rabbit trail of destruction... When I truly saw them for who they were in Christ it was terrifying.

“The thing is, if you are celebrating Halloween, you are aligning with those things, you are aligning with the Kingdom of Darkness.”

Unless true Christians take a stand and put a stop to this wicked, Antichrist program, the Marxist regime that controls our country will continue to push forward with its vile agenda.

Please share this paper widely and urge recipients to (a) familiarize themselves with the details to date of the Government’s paganization program and (b) discuss the program with fellow believers at meetings convened for this purpose. Then, as a group, pray to the LORD for guidance as to the steps that need to be taken and for the strength to take them.

Those who love Jesus and keep his commandments will know what to do.

Jeremy James Ireland
October 11, 2024

For further information visit www.zephaniah.eu

Copyright Jeremy James 2024